

Respectful Workplace - Corporate Policy

Released-Under Revision

Respectful Workplace - Policy

This Policy complements the Respecting Diversity in Daily Interactions, Care Planning and System Design policy by specifying expectations and commitments to an environment of mutual respect, safety, and inclusiveness for those providing services within, or on behalf of, Fraser Health, including but not limited to employees, physicians, volunteers, students, contractors, and others (Individuals). Including procedures for investigating respectful workplace complaints (inc allegations of bullying and harassment).

Applicable sites

Regional

Publication

Fraser Health External Site

Lead

Employee Experience

Impacted

All Programs, Networks and Professions

Employee Experience

Executive sponsorship

Vice President, Employee Experience

Released Jun 1, 2005

Revised Aug 18, 2021

Under revision Jul 9, 2024

